

LEVEL ASSESSMENT TEST

Here is where your WSI life begins!

TABLE OF CONTENTS

01

Getting to Know

Introduce yourself,
Try to do it in a
complete sentence.

02

Reading

Read a short story and answer the questions afterwards

03

Compare

Which will you pick?

04

Describe Me

Tell me what am I?

01

Getting To Know!

This could be the part of where you can introduce yourself, SPEAK LOUDER, USE COMPLETE SENTENCE...

Name : _____

Age : _____

Address : _____

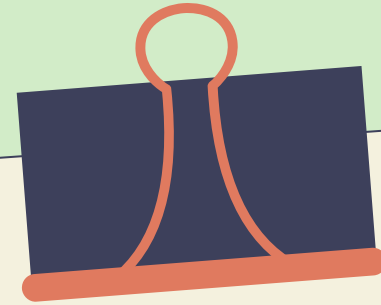

Birthday : _____

My School : _____

My Hobby : _____

My Favorite Food : _____

All About Me

READING

02

Read and Understand!

OUR OBJECTIVES

How many countries?

There are 193 countries in the world.
Some countries are big.
Some countries are small.

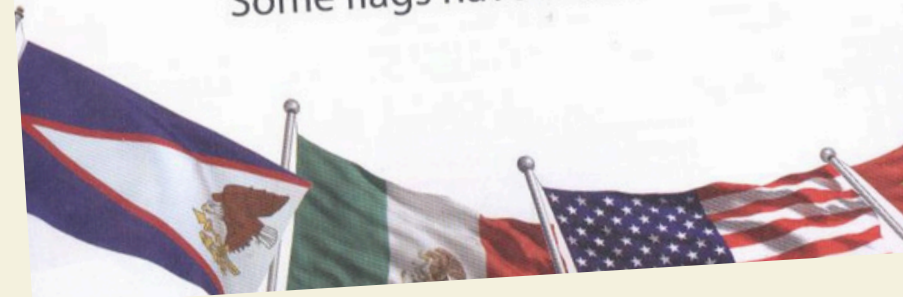

Some cities have many people.
Some cities have few people.

Countries have flags.

Every country has a flag.
A country's flag is special for it.

Flags have special designs.
Some flags have stars.
Some flags have birds.

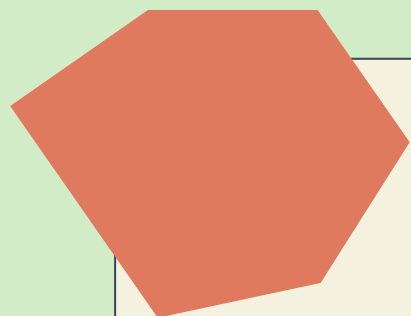

Did You Know?

Many countries have red, blue, and white on their flags.
Each color has a special meaning.

Some countries have stars on their flags.
Some countries have the sun or moon on their flags.
The sun, moon, and stars have special meanings.

- 1. How many countries are there in the world?
- 2. What is the name of your country?
- 3. What are the colors of your country's flag?

COMPARE

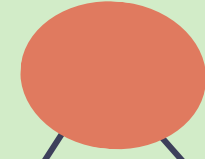

WHICH IS WHICH?

03

WHAT SETS US APART?

Which is better?
Why do you think that _____ is better than _____?
Which would you like to have?

DESCRIBE ME!

04

WHERE I'VE BEEN

AMERICA

It's the closest planet to the Sun

EUROPE

Saturn is composed mostly of hydrogen and helium

THANK YOU